

book club questions

THE WEDDING PEOPLE

---

What is the significance of the title, The Wedding People?

Does the cover art accurately reflect the story?

Why did the author choose a wedding setting for The Wedding People?

Why is the Newport, Rhode Island, setting significant?

The Wedding People deals with a lot of raw emotions and relationship dynamics. Did you find any of this content difficult to read?

Why do Phoebe and Lila choose to confide in each other?

Have you ever confided in a stranger?

Compare and contrast Phoebe and Lila.

Discuss Phoebe's relationship with Matt.

Discuss Lila's relationships with Gary and Juice.

Who was your favorite wedding guest and why?

How do the wedding guests affect Phoebe's and Lila's lives?

What does The Wedding People say about society's expectations about marriage?

What does The Wedding People say about a wedding versus a marriage?

What does The Wedding People say about parenting?

Discuss the role grief plays in The Wedding People.

Discuss the role literature plays in The Wedding People.

How do Phoebe and Lila change throughout The Wedding People?

How has human connection pulled you through dark moments in life?

Was The Wedding People a sad or happy book?

Do you agree with this quote: "I just mean, a story can be beautiful not because of the way it ends. But because of the way it's written."

Was the ending right for the story?

The Wedding People is a book that makes points through storytelling. What's your biggest takeaway?

What do you think is next for Phoebe and Lila?

Tell everyone a memorable story about your wedding or one you attended.